Clemenceau Is Defeated For French President

DEFEAT TO SEND TIGER TO PRIVATE LIFE

Paul Deschanel Leads in the Balloting and Clemenceau Withdraws

French President Refuses to be a Candidate; Many Deputies Vote

(By the Associated Press)

PARIS—Premier Georges Clemenceau went down to defeat at the hands of his countrymen today in a caucus of the senate and chamber of deputies to choose a candidate for the presidency of the republic. Senators and deputies, after the caucus in which Paul Deschanel, president of the chamber, led the premier by 19 votes, generally expressed the opinion that the vote means the elimination from public life of "the father of victory" Premier Clemenceau being neither a senator nor a deputy.

Premier Clemenceau announced that he would withdraw as a candidate for the presidency of the republic. He asked his supporters to vote for President Poincare for re-election.

The vote resulted as follows:

Paul Deschanel, president of the chamber of deputies, 408; Premier Clemenceau, 389; Charles C. A. Jonnart, 4; Leon Bourgeois, 3; Marshal Foch, 1; President Poincare, 16.

Mr. Clemenceau's friends are already searching for another candidate as President Poincare is reported to have refused to accede to the demand of a deputation of senators and deputies that he be a candidate for re-election. He is said to have renewed emphatically the expression of his determination not to be a candidate.

Never before in the history of presidential elections in France has a plenary caucus been attended by such a large number of deputies and senators, 821 out of 924 being present. Heretofore it has been the custom to call a caucus only of the parties of the left but today M. Deschanel stands as the chosen candidate both of the Chamber and Senate—all the parties.

Neither Premier Clemenceau nor M. Deschanel were present at the caucus but former Premier Briand, Andre Lefevre and Edouard Herriot, the latter the new president of the radical party, were conspicuous in marshaling the Deschanel forces, while Georges Mandel, and Edouard Ignace were canvassing on behalf of M. Clemenceau.

TIGHTER FLU PRECAUTIONS NEEDED NOW

State Board of Health Issues Warning to be Careful

525 New Cases.

CHICAGO—Five hundred and twenty-five new cases of influenza with seven deaths, were reported as developments of the 24 hours ending at 10 a. m. today. The number is nearly twice that reported yesterday when 280 new cases were reported. Ninety-three pneumonia cases with 12 deaths were reported.

Following a careful survey of the influenza situation in the state during the past week, the state board of health Friday issued a statement advising the tightening of precautions to prevent a recurrence of last year's epidemic. Except in Milwaukee, where a few cases have been reported, the state appears as yet to be quite free from the disease. There are evidences, the board declares, of an increased number of cases of so-called grip that do not, however, partake of the character of influenza, and the question arises whether these might not be a forerunner of the recurrence of the "flu."

"The indications to date show" says the board, "that influenza is not associated in any considerable degree at least with the type and character of illnesses concerning which the board has knowledge. This does not mean there are not a few cases of "flu" in certain sections of the state. Milwaukee reports a number of cases, and the health authorities there are watching the situation closely. There is an apparent epidemic of "flu" at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, and Chicago reports the prevalence of this malady there to a considerable extent with some fatalities.

"This being the fact, it behooves health authorities in Wisconsin and the medical profession to exercise due care in their endeavor to determine whether or not influenza is actually present in any locality, and this board also strongly urges that citizens of the state use all precautions not to expose themselves unnecessarily to so-called grip or other maladies simulating colds, and demands that all individuals ill with the grip take special precautions to remain at home, and preferably in bed, until all acute symptoms have subsided and danger passed.

"All cases of illness of this character must be placarded, whether it be grip or influenza, and the cases reported to the health officer within 24 hours. There are no indications at present that public gatherings should be prohibited, but the influenza of last year should emphasize to all authorities having control of public gatherings that all persons afflicted with severe colds or coughs must be excluded.

"This board does not desire to create any unusual alarm but does desire to emphasize the fact that we are close to a dangerous condition and that every precaution should be put into effect to avoid the necessity for more stringent regulations."

HURRIED CALL STIRS BRITAIN ON THE REDS

Cabinet Members Rush to Paris to Discuss the Situation in the East

AROUSE APPREHENSION

Odessa is Now Reported to be in the Hands of the Bolsheviki

(By the Associated Press)

BASLE—Odessa, the chief port of Russia on the Black sea, has been occupied by the bolsheviki, according to newspaper dispatches received here.

England Is Alarmed.

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON—Attention of the British is fixed on the near east where bolshevik successes have carried the red armies almost up to India, Persia, Mesopotamia and Asiatic Turkey. Cabinet members and chiefs of the British army and navy are today in Paris, whither they were hastily summoned yesterday and are conferring with Premier David Lloyd George on military and naval matters in connection with conditions in southwestern Asia.

Apprehension was aroused by the issuance of a statement yesterday pointing out the situation that has arisen through the collapse of Gen. Denikine's army in southern Russia and bolshevik penetration of trans-Caspia. Not only was it admitted the menace from a Russian bolshevik invasion of the near east was very real but it was pointed out that internal conditions in Persia, Turkey and Afghanistan were threatening.

In Mesopotamia too, the British are forced to contend with difficulties arising from racial dissension. It was said that a soviet advance that captures the Crimea would make the Black sea virtually a Russian bolshevik lake and it was further indicated that Great Britain could hope for little help from the new republics of Georgia, Daghestan and Azorbaijan which are directly in the path of the soviet advance.

Fear Polish Attack.

While there is a possibility the bolsheviki may launch an overwhelming attack against Poland, the statement issued yesterday showed the greatest pre-occupation of officialdom was over the debacle of Denikine's armies and the rapid advance of the soviet forces toward the Persian and Afghan frontiers.

The situation which now confronts Great Britain and Japan and China, is not of sudden growth, however. For the past two months or more the bolshevik have had an almost unbroken series of successes.

Admiral Kolchak's army in Siberia seems to have been completely dispersed. The Reds are today far east of Krasnoyarsk and are moving nearer Irkutsk. The bolsheviki have established themselves southward near the Mongolian frontier.

Further to the southwest the soviet forces have passed Akmolinsk and are believed to have moved southward toward the frontier of Chinese Turkestan. The capture of Bokhara, less than 200 miles from the Afghan border, was announced from Moscow a week ago and it was said Krasnodovsk on the eastern shore of the Caspian sea was in the hands of the Red forces. Thus from the Yenisei river to the Caspian, a distance of more than 2,200 miles the bolsheviki seem to be quite firmly established. From this line it would appear they might be able to essay incursions toward China to the southeast or Afghanistan and India to the south. Persia lies south of the Caspian sea and bolshevik agents are said to be active there.

HOLY REDEEMER SCHOOL CLOSED BY SMALLPOX

Action is Taken by City Health Officer Purcell; to Fumigate Rooms

Holy Redeemer school was closed today by the city health department. Dr. H. E. Purcell, city health officer reported 8 or 10 cases of small pox in the community and ordered that the school be closed for this reason. The rooms of the building are to be fumigated and thoroughly renovated and all children attending this school must be vaccinated. More than 300 children attend Holy Redeemer school.

I urge upon the Madison public that all school children be vaccinated at once," said Dr. Purcell. "I believe this is the only way by which we can meet the situation."

The school will probably re-open netx week, but not until all the children have been vaccinated and all the rooms renovated. Every arrangement is being made by Madison health authorities in case an influenza epidemic reaches the city. Quarantine more rigid than ever, will be enforced here if the flu does come.

NATION DRY TONIGHT BY CONSTITUTION

Eighteenth Amendment Will Go Into Effect at Midnight

RULES ARE STRICTER

Liquor May Only be Served in the Home; Cannot be Moved

Today is the last day of wartime prohibition.

Beginning at midnight tonight prohibition as provided by the eighteenth constitutional amendment becomes effective.

In general, the only difference in the prohibitions as provided by the wartime act and the constitutional amendment is that the latter is much stricter and will be enforced to a higher degree than the wartime act.

The wartime prohibition act, combined with the Volstad act in brief proclaimed it illegal to sell any beverage containing more than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol. This act allowed persons to carry liquor on their persons, to drink it in public, provided it was their own stock, and offered no restrictions on where it was kept. Under the act it was permissible for a person to keep liquor for his personal use, at his club, at his office, in his home. In prosecuting alleged bootleggers the government was obliged to prove that a sale had been made.

Much More Severe

The prohibition constitutional amendment, besides explicitly defining how it shall be rigidly enforced is more severe in the respect that it prohibits not only the sale of liquor, but its use in any place other than the bona fide residence of the possessor.

Persons owning intoxicating liquor kept at their homes, may drink it to their heart's content and give it to their guest, but under no consideration may one of the guests take it from the premises. Gifts of liquor are strictly prohibited.

A bona fide residence, according to Thomas Delaney, prohibition director for Wisconsin, shall be the place where a man makes his permanent home.

Traveling salesmen can not keep whisky in their rooms, carry it in their grips or on their person, but must keep it at their bona fide residence. Persons who make hotels their home and are not transient, may keep whisky in their room or rooms or in a private locker.

Lockers at clubs may not be used to keep liquor, except in a case where an individual sleeps at the club regularly and makes it his home. Saloon keepers having a stock of whisky for personal use must keep it apart from the saloon. They must not keep it in the saloon basement, even though they live in the building, unless it is kept under lock and key.

"Horse Doctors" Thing of Past Not Much, Say Veterinarians

Tractors Cannot Replace Old Dobbin on Small Farms is Claim at Convention Here; Doctors Are Kept Busy in State

HORSES are coming back into their own as farm motive power in Wisconsin despite the encroachments of the tractor," according to L. A. Wright, Columbus, who is attending the meeting of the Wisconsin Veterinary Medical association here. "Fearing competition of the tractors would cut down their market, breeders of horses have not been producing enough animals for farm use with the result that Wisconsin faces the prospect of a horse famine this spring."

"At a single sale in Milwaukee recently there were 200 Wisconsin farmers bidding for horses, paying as high as $750 a team. Farm horses are bringing anywhere from $150 to $300 apiece about the state. I think the reason is that Wisconsin farmers have found that the tractor cannot replace their horses on the small farms of the state. Far sighted veterinarians have foreseen this situation and have been advising farmers to continue breeding horses."

Veterinary surgeons at the convention have discovered by comparing notes that the past year has been one of the busiest any of them has ever had. The increased number of high priced pure-bred dairy herds, hogs and sheep in the state has kept the veterinarians in constant demand. With such valuable stock, farmers are appreciating the need for the services of the veterinary surgeon. Replacement of carriage horses by automobiles has cut down the city practice, but the county practitioner has found the increase in work among other farm animals more than offsets any falling off due to automotive power.

Delegates to the convention attended a clinic at W. A. Wolcott's hospital Friday morning. A feature of the clinic was the application of the intradermal tuberculin test on a number of tubercular suspects. An example of tubercular lesion was shown. The demonstration included both ante-mortem and postmortem specimens. The theoretical section on tuberculosis was held Thursday evening, with O. H. Elason, J. S. Healy, J. P. West, A. J. Glover and L. A. Wright on the program. The clinic Friday ended the convention.

HANSEN ON WITNESS STAND IN GIRL CASE

Appears Nervous When Cross Questioned Concerning Miss Ohnstad

Startling allegations were made in circuit court this morning by Harry Shapiro witness for Clarence Hansen, owner of the Wisconsin Wagon Co., defendant in a $10,000 breach of promise suit brought against him by Miss Jessie Ohnstad. Shapiro testified that he heard Miss Ohnstad say last April that she would kill Hansen, and that after hearing this statement he telephoned it to Hansen.

Up to last night only three witnesses had been on the stand, Miss Ohnstad testified herself yesterday. She told how, for several years, she and Mr. Hansen had been keeping company and that he intended to marry her after his mother's death. On Feb. 4, 1919, she alleges, he slapped her face, and knocked her over in his office, inflicting injuries for which she asks damages. Dr. W. T. Lindsay appeared as witness this morning, testifying to the injuries.

By promises that he would treat her gently, love her, stop going with other girls with the exception of a Miss Mitchell of Sun Prairie, and consider marrying her, the girl alleges, she was persuaded to drop her suit, which she started immediately after the assault. On the stand she told the jury that he had not kept his promises and that he had been going out with other girls.

Attorney A. H. Bushnell of Madison appeared this morning to testify as to the promises Hansen had made Miss Ohnstad in his law offices October 24, 1919, after which the complainant dropped the suit.

Cross questioned as to his promises to Miss Ohnstad this morning, Hansen could not remember details of the alleged assault, and of his promises to Miss Ohnstad after her agreement to drop the suit. He alleges that she stabbed at him with a hatpin on the night of Feb. 4, that previous to the stabbing, he had slapped her face but that he had not struck her, making a distinction between striking and slapping. When she tried to attack him with her hands, he declared, he pushed her back, protecting himself, and she fell backward and then sideways. Carl N. Hill of the law firm of Hill and Spohn cross-examined the defendant.

Miss Ohnstad quietly entered the courtroom this morning and took her place beside her attorneys. Her composure was not broken when her erstwhile sweetheart, Hansen, was called upon to testify. Occasionally she would look around the room, a faint smile on her lips, in response to a smile from friends seated in the back of the room.

Questioned by a reporter, Miss Ohnstad said that it was too early to feel confident over winning the suit, but that she believed that she had a right to it. "I haven't anything to say for publication yet" she declared.

Mr. Hansen appeared nervous during the examination. He played with his hands, shifted in his chair and frequently became impatient at questions. He became confused once or twice and several times asked to have questions repeated. The trial was continued this afternoon.

TRIAL OF OLD HI COST BEGINS NEXT TUESDAY

Hi Costa Livin will be put through a third degree beginning next Tuesday by the federal grand jury at La Crosse, which will devote all its attention to the investigation of high prices of foot wear, clothing, food, and other necessaries of life. Witnesses from all parts of the state have been subpoenaed to appear before the jury by A. C. Wolfe, U. S. district attorney. The length of the jury session will depend on the developments, Mr. Wolfe said Friday morning before leaving for La Crosse.

"If charges of profiteering are borne out by the evidence, there will be some prosecutions," he said.

Arthur Mulberger, assistant U. S. district attorney; Mrs. Everett T. Kissam, chief clerk of the attorney's office; Frank O'Connor, U. S. marshal; John Lamont, chief deputy, and Joseph Gantz, deputy marshal, will leave for La Crosse between now and Monday morning. Will Touton, deputy marshall, will remain here to attend to routine arrests.

IRISH FIRST AT WORLD BODY WITH PROTEST

Leon Bourgeois Opens First Meeting of the League of Nations

PEACE IS LAUDED

Vacant Place of the U. S. is Referred to by the Opening Speakers

(By the Associated Press)

PARIS—The council of the league of nations received the first formal protest to be presented to it almost before it came into being with today's initial sessions. The protest was from "The envoys of the elected government of Irish Republic' against "the unreal English simulacre of an international league of peace."

Meeting Is Convened

PARIS — Representatives of France, Great Britain, Italy, Greece Belgium, Spain, Japan, Portugal and Brazil, members of the council of the league of nations, met in the clock room of the French foreign office this morning for the first meeting in the history of the league.

The council organized by electing Leon Bourgeois chairman and confirming the choice of Sir Eric Drummond of Great Britain as general secretary. The first official act of the council was the appointment of a commission to trace upon the spot the frontiers of the territory of the Saare Basin.

Bourgeois In Address

Leon Bourgeois said: "The task of presiding at this meeting and inaugurating this great international institution should have fallen to President Wilson. We respect the reasons which still delay final decision by our friends in Washington, but express the hope that their difficulties will soon be overcome and that a representativve of the great American republic will occupy the place awaiting him. The work of the council will then assume definite character.

"January 16, 1920 will go down in history as the date of the birth of a new world. Decisions to be reached today will be in the name of all nations adhering to the covenant. It will be the first decree of all free nations leaguing themselves together for the first time in the world to substitute right for might. But the organization of the league of nations will not be complete until the assembly of all the states meets.

Earl Curzon, British representative on the council of the league said:

"On behalf of the British empire I desire to express the loyalty of my government and the external dominions of the British crown to the spirit underlying the covenant of the league of nations. It is our intention by every means in our power to insure its practical efficiency. It is our firm belief that through its instrumentality alone we can hope to insure that such miseries that the world has experienced during the past five years shall not be repeated and that a new era of international relationship shall dawn.

"The league of nations is an expression of the universal desire for saner methods of regulating affairs of mankind and provides machinery by which practical effect may be given the principles of international friendship and good understanding.

Calls Conference Success

"The success of the labors of the peace conference is a good augury for the future of the league of nations. For the first time an attempt was made to bring together under the auspices of the league representatives of governments employers and laborers, and an advance exceeding the results of the entire work of the previous quarter of a century has been made in the field of international action on industrial questions."

All the members of the council called for by the covenant of the league with the exception of the representatives of the United States were present when M. Bourgeois called the meeting to order. Besides M. Bourgeois the members were Earl Curzon, Premier Venizelos for Greece, Carlo Ferraris, Italian minister of industry, Paul Huysmans, the Belgium foreign minister Baron Matsui for Japan; Dr. Gastos De Cunha, ambassador to France for Brazil; Count Quinones De Leon ambassador to France for Spain.

Mormon Case Cited As Precedent For Ousting The N. Y. Socialists

Speaker Sweet of Legislature in Long Statement Justifying Action; Denies Move Was Inspired by Politics

(By the Associated Press)

ALBANY, N. Y.— Precedent for the action of the assembly in suspending the five socialist members is found in the case of Brigham H. Roberts, elected to the 56th Congress from Utah, according to Speaker Sweet.

This declaration was contained in a formal statement issued by the speaker today.

"The remarks made in debate by certain members of the assembly during the sessions of 1918 and 1919, upon legislation then pending pertaining to the successful prosecution of the war had attracted my attention" Mr. Sweet said. "This attitude upon their part, together with information which came to me from federal intelligence officers led to the adoption of the resolution which created the legislative committee known as the 'Lusk investigating committee. My observation of these members in legislative action, together with evidence presented to the Lusk committee convinced me that my duty to the state demanded that before these five members should be permitted to participate in the deliberations of the assembly their eligibility and qualifications to sit should be passed upon. This decision was reached after deep study.

"The resolution introduced by Mr. Adler did not expel these five members from their seats. It empowered the judiciary committee of the assembly to investigate their qualifications and eligibility to sit and suspended them until the committee should report.

"The impropriety of a member sitting in a legislative body and voting on the adoption or rejection of a report in respect of his conduct would seem to be manifest and to justify his temporary suspension.

"In the case of Brigham H. Roberts, a representative elected from the state of Utah to congress, his right to sit was challenged by an individual member on the ground that his conduct had rendered him ineligible. A resolution was adopted by the House denying him the right to a seat until after the report of the committee appointed to investigate. The question of procedure was sharply raised by an amendment offered to the resolution which would have permitted Mr. Roberts to take and occupy his seat until the final determination by the committee. The amendment was defeated and the original resolution adopted by an overwhelming vote.

"In its final report the committee reviewed not only the facts brought to the attention of the committee but the precedents bearing upon the procedure followed. Speaking upon this point they said:

"'Both houses of congress have in innumerable instances exercised the right to stop a member-elect at the threshold and refuse to permit him to be sworn in until an investigation has been made as to his right to a seat.'

"The report of the committee was adopted by the house by a vote of 268 to 50.

"While the preamble of the resolution adopted by the assembly suggests certain lines of investigation which might be followed and certain associations and connections of the suspended members which might indicate their disqualification, the committee is in no wise confined in the scope of its investigation. It is not directed primarily to investigate the principles of any political party or any other organization except as they have a bearing upon individual qualifications of a suspended member. Nor is the committee directed or required to investigate any specific charges whatever. It is a very different proceeding from the case of an impeachment upon formulated charges. The committee is required to investigate and ascertain whether in its opinion the suspended members separately and individually have been guilty of such conduct, have expressed such opinions, have associated themselves in such relationships as to render them unfit to sit in an American legislative assembly. If any such member has been guilty of disloyal, criminal vicious or immoral conduct or utterances or has associated himself with any organization the principles, tenets or practices of which are disloyal, criminal vicious or immoral, he is manifestly disqualified.

"The suggestion which is being actively and insidiously promulgated that these men have been suspended by reason of political opinions, or primarily because they are members of a political party as such, or that the action of the assembly in suspending them constitutes any finality of judgment, is utterly false."

INDUSTRY AND THRIFT CHUMS, SAYS LEVITAN

Declares Laziness and Wastefulness Twins Leading to Poverty

That "thrift and industry are the chums that no obstacle can deter in the path of opportunity and success" was the statement of Solomon Levitan, president of the Commercial National bank of Madison in speaking before the meeting of the Thrift club at the Y. M. C. A. building Thursday evening. Mr. Levitan declared that whatever success he had in the world had come through thrift. He declared that laziness and wastefulness are the evil twins that lead to poverty and ruin.

"Opportunities come to the man of thrift," declared Mr. Levitan. "Real opportunities to make money, to advance up the ladder of success, will knock the man down with a club if you make a practice of saving.

"The bank lends money to a man, not alone on the wealth the man has in the world, but upon the man's ability to save—his thrift. As president of a bank I have seen many a man with little money, but with thrift—the practice of saving, a part of his earnings—and I have seen these men make good. They never fail. I have seen many a man who might earn money, but with no thought of thrift, die in penury.

"The bank as you know is the best friend of the business man. Money is loaned not so much on what the man is worth, but upon the prospects that this man has of saving; his determination to lay aside money for future use. Every successful business man lays aside some earnings each year. Thrift makes a man what he is in the community. The ability to waste money never advanced any man in the estimation of his fellow men. His friends liked him while his money lasted. They forgot him when his money was spent.

"Many years ago with a pack on my back I walked into a bank at Monroe. Vice Pres. J. B. Treat was signing currency. I asked him how long it took a man in this country before he might sign currency.

"That all depends," the banker told me. "Some may be able to do so in a few years. Many die without ever being able to do so. It all depends how thrifty you are."

"My banking business experience has demonstrated to me that that is the truth. Thrift makes opportunities. Thrift raises a man in the estimation of the people. There is nothing so pitiable as the spendthrift. The depositors in the banks, the owners of saving accounts, are men and women striving to be thrifty. Penniless and young I came to this country. My hear is now growing grey from a life of business experience. What little money I have made has come through the saving habit—the habit of thrift.

"Give me the names of the young men in any community who are making good and as a banker I will be able to show you that each man's success did not come through chance. It came through thrift; thrift builds communities; thrift makes people happy; thrift gives better homes; thrift affords better living better opportunities for advancement."

Prominent Man Faces Charges Naming Girl

RACINE, Wis.—A considerable sensation was caused late Wednesday when Frank Foster, superintendent of the probation home, was arrested on serious charges made in a complaint filed by Ellsworth Niels and naming a girl, formerly an inmate at the institution. The case was adjourned to Jan. 21, and bonds were fixed in the sum of $750. The girl in the case recently was connected with trouble implicating a former manager of the Racine country club.

Would Limit Church to English Language

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—A move has been started to have English the only language used in service of Methodist Episcopal churches throut the U. S. after 1920. The matter is expected to be voted on at the quadrennial conference next May in Des Moines.

Such a rule would affect 16 conference bodies, of which ten are German speaking and the others Danish, Swedish, and Norwegian. The German speaking churches have voiced a strong protest.

18 Votes Against Water Power Bill

Lenroot Vote in Opposition to Measure; Senator La Follette is Ill

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Senator Nelson, Minnesota, in charge of the water power measure in opposing some of the numerous amendments offered, said the country had suffered for years for waterpower development and that it was not wise to adopt proposals that would simply postpone legislation three years.

Those voting against the bill passed in the senate yesterday were:

Republicans: — Borah, Gronna, Kenyon, Lenroot and McCormick.

Democrats:—Gore, Harris, Harrison, Kirby, McKellar, Nugent, Reed, Robinson, Sheppard, Stanley, Trammell, Walsh of Mass., and Williams.

Senator La Follette was absent because of illness.

GUNDLACH GIVEN $5,200 DAMAGES

Carl F. Gundlach, Burke farmer, was awarded $5,200 in damages by a circuit court jury Thursday afternoon against the Northwestern road. The award was one of the largest ever given by a jury in the Dane county.

The jury found that the accident, which happened when a locomotive struck Gundlach's milk wagon, was not due to the negligence of either of the men in charge of the engine, yet the verdict claimed that they failed to exercise proper care. Gundlach, according to the verdict, used sufficient care. Damages of $4,700 were for personal injuries and $500 for the destruction of his milk wagon. The case will probably be appealed to supreme court.

800 STREAMS EXPLORED BY TROUT SURVEY

Twenty Wisconsin Counties Canvassed; Work Will Take 2 or 3 years More

Unique plans have been adopted by the conservation commission to determine the basis of action on important movements looking to the conservation of fish and game in the state, according to W. E. Barber, chairman of the state board.

A referendum vote is being taken among the members of the legislature on the plan to declare a closed season for at least one year on deer and muskrats. Out of the first 80 replies received from members only six indicated they would oppose the plan or had not definitely decided on the wisdom of the course.

"The replies," he said, "indicate the recommendation of the commission for a closed season on deer and muskrats will be accepted by a large vote. Before deciding the question we will hold hearings in different parts of the state to ascertain the sentiment of trappers, hunters, and other interested citizens." He will conduct these hearings during the next three months and with the information already available in the office of the state board, will have completed survey of the situation by May 1.

Statistics collected by the state board indicate that muskrats and deer are rapidly diminishing and that a closed season for a year or longer is necessary.

The commission has made much progress in a survey of trout streams in the state, to be used for reference in the distribution of trout fry. Every stream in 20 of the best trout fishing counties in the state has been surveyed.

All information is recorded in the office of the conservation commission at Madison, Mr. Barber said.

"There are many trout streams in the state in which the speckled beauties will not thrive because of the condition of the water," said Mr. Barber, "and to these streams we send rainbow trout. The survey determines the question for the commission conclusively."

Over 800 trout streams in 20 counties have been thus far surveyed by the conservation agents.

Suffered from Catarrh

Superior, Wis.:—"I had been a great sufferer for about ten years with catarrh of the head, or nasal catarrh. I used Dr. Pierce's medicines for about five months, the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and am feeling better than I have in ten years. I used to have severe headaches, but I have never had one of these spells since I took the first bottle of Dr. Pierce's medicine. I can recommend these medicines judging by what they have done for me. I have also written Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, in Buffalo, N. Y., in regard to my case and have always received prompt replies and much valuable information in regard to my particular case."—JOHN G. JOHNSON, 1217 Tower Ave.

Became Run-Down

Followed by Rheumatism

Flint, Mich.:—"Several years ago I became very poorly and finally had rheumatism so that I couldn't walk for several months. I doctored with four of our local doctors with very little relief, if any, and used some two or three different patent medicines. I got no better. My friends thought I wasn't going to get well at all. I was clear discouraged and when I read in the paper of someone in my same condition who had been cured by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I didn't believe a word of it but I was giving what little money I had to the doctors anyway and thought I might as well give Dr. Pierce a little, so I got $5.00 worth of the Golden Medical Discovery and the little 'Pleasant Pellets' and took them. By that time I was so much better that I kept on and I was so well I hardly knew myself. My friends were surprised. Of course I told them all I did was to take the 'Discovery' and take good care of myself. Now this is all straight truth."—MRS. THEO. PACK, 1261 Stever Ave.

TENNEY SEES H. C. L. DROP

Prices Dropped 5 Per Cent in 10 Days Says Commission

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The gross cost of living in Wisconsin dropped five per cent between Jan. 1 and Jan. 10, according to an average of the wholesale and retail quotations on all commodities necessary to life, as prepared by C. H. Tenney, state fair price commissioner, and submitted to the department of justice this week.

Mr. Tenney cautions that such an average is not necessarily an indication of a similar reduction to all consumers, as individuals would not be apt to purchase, during any given period, all of the commodities that go to make up the average. He believes, however, that it is a hopeful sign.

EASTERN SEED CORN IS BARRED

Quarantine is for Purpose of Stopping Spread of European Borer

The state department of agriculture has quarantined seed corn and broom corn grown in Massachusetts, New York and neighboring states, and it is expected that other states in the corn belt will take similar action at once.

"The reason for the agitation to bar eastern seed corn," according to Dr. S. B. Fracker of the state department of agriculture, "is the discovery of the rapid spread of the European corn borer and further evidence showing the injury it is causing. New extensive areas were located late in the fall in western New York and northern Pennsylvania. The federal department is cooperating with the states concerned in an attempt to eradicate the insect completely from these western areas, although the department seems to have given up the attempt to wipe it out in Massachusetts.

"The southern states are especially alarmed at the prospects, for since the boll weevil has done such tremendous damage to the cotton crop, corn has become their principal source of a cash return."

NEW YORK—Communism is gaining in Holland at the expense of the socialists, Dr. Adriaan Jacob Barnouw, Queen Wilhelmina lecturer at Columbia university, said tonight on "Politica Parties in Holland."

Revolution instead of evolution is openly advocated by Troelstra, the socialist leader, the speaker said, but in that he is not supported by the bulk of the party.

You Need Not Suffer from Catarrh

But You Must Drive It Out of Your Blood to Get Rid of It Permanently.

You have probably been in the habit of applying external treatments, trying to cure your Catarrh. You have used sprays, washes and lotions and possibly been temporarily relieved. But after a short time you had another attack and wondered why. You must realize that catarrh is an infection of the blood and to get permanent relief the catarrh infection must be driven out of the blood. The quicker you come to understand this, the quicker you will get it out of your system. S. S. S., which has been in constant use for over fifty years, will attack the catarrhal poisons, cleanse and strengthen the blood, so it will carry vigor and health to the mucous membranes on its journeys through your body and nature will soon restore you to health, you will be relieved of the droppings of mucous in your throat, sores in nostrils, bad breath, hawking and spitting.

All reputable druggists carry S. S. S. in stock and we recommend you give it a trial at once.

Our— Christmas Savings Club

Is The Talk of the Town

Here is a typical conversation we heard the other day:

"I've found" states a gentleman who has been a member of the Commercial National Bank's Christmas Savings Club several years, "that there is always some need for ready cash about Christmas time, and for that reason I always take out two memberships in the Commercial National Bank's Christmas Savings Club, one starting with 5c and continuing with 5c more each week for 50 weeks and one starting with $2.50 and continuing with 5c less each week for 50 weeks. In this way I pay $2.55 each week for 50 weeks, and I receive $129.43 at Christmas time. It's ready money and easy to pile up. One year it paid for the repairs on my front porch, and another year it paid for the electric wiring and fixtures for two attic rooms and my garage. There always seems to be something that this Christmas Savings Club money comes in handy for."

BELCHING
Acid-Stomach

Let EATONIC, the wonderful modern stomach remedy, give you quick relief from disgusting belching, food-repeating, indigestion, clouded, gassy stomach, dyspepsia, heartburn and other stomach miseries. They are all caused by Acid-Stomach from which about nine people out of ten suffer in one way or another. One writes as follows: "Before I used EATONIC, I could not eat a bite without belching it right up, sour and bitter. I have not had a bit of trouble since the first tablet."

Millions are victims of Acid-Stomach without knowing it. They are weak and ailing, have poor digestion, bodies improperly nourished although they may eat heartily. Grave disorders are likely to follow if an acid-stomach is neglected. Cirrhosis of the liver, intestinal congestion, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach—these are only a few of the many ailments often caused by Acid-Stomach.

A sufferer from Catarrh of the Stomach of 11 years' standing writes: "I had catarrh of the stomach for 11 long years and I never found anything to do me any good—just temporary relief—until I used EATONIC. It is a wonderful remedy and I do not want to be without it."

If you are not feeling quite right—lack energy and enthusiasm and don't know just where to locate the trouble—try EATONIC and see how much better you will feel in every way.

At all drug stores—a big box for 50c and your money back if you are not satisfied.

JOINT DEBATE TEAMS CLASH AT 8 TONIGHT

Athenae and Hesperia Meet to Decide Forensic Honors

When Governor E. L. Philipp, as chairman of the joint debate makes his introductory remarks at 8 o'clock tonight at Main hall, the biggest forensic event in university annals will take place. This year the contest is between Athenae and Hesperia and to the winner goes the debating championship of the campus.

The question for debate is of interest to the public as a proposed solution to many industrial ills. It reads, "Resolved, that a policy of compulsory health insurance for wage earners should be adopted in the United States." The judges are Selig Perlman, of the department of economics; Voyta Wrabetz, formerly principal of the Madison high school; Merlin Hull, secretary of state; Henry Trumbower, of the Wisconsin railroad commission; and Prof. E. A. Gilmore, of the Law school.

The debate tonight is presented as the result of nine months of concentration. The contestants were elected last spring and have been at work since that time preparing their cases.

Athenae will uphold the affirmative in tonight's discussion, while Hesperia supports the negative. Every man in the contest is a debater of experience who has received his "baptism by fire."

Ray P. Lichtenwalner, '21, closer for Athenae has for three years been identified with forensic activities at Wisconsin. Ray was on one the Athenae semi-public teams in his sophomore year. Upon him the Athenaens have rested most of their hopes for victory.

Baron de H. Meyer, '19, closer for the negative is a man who has won his spurs in forensics. In his sophomore year he was closer on the Hesperian Semi-Public team which defeated Philomathia. During his sophomore year he also won the sophomore oratorical contest. He was elected to Artus, honorary economics fraternity, last spring and is editing the forensic section of the 1921 Badger.

Fletcher G. Cohn, '19, Athenae, entered Wisconsin as a junior from Tennessee University where he was an intercollegiate debater of note and a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary forensics fraternity. In the short time he has been here forensic honors have continued to come his way. Last year he represented Wisconsin in the Northern Oratorical League Contest and delivered the pipe of peace oration at the commencement exercises.

Hobart H. Kletzien, '19, Hesperian, was a semi-public debater in his sophomore year. At present he is president of the forensic board where he represents Hesperia. "Hobe" will fire the first shot for the negative.

Clarence E. Fugina, '21, Athenae, led his team to a unanimous victory over Philomathia in the semi-public debate last year. As first speaker on the affirmative he will introduce the greatest forensic event of the school year.

Elmer J. Koch, '19, Hesperian, was an inter-normal debater at Oshkosh in 1914.

The societies will meet in their respective halls tonight at 7:00 and will go to Music hall in a body. The historic Athenae rooster will be much in evidence as will the banners won in past years.

PHILOMATHIANS PLAN TO ATTEND DEBATE

According to the custom of having the non-participating forensic society attend the joint debate in a body, Philomathians will meet at 7:30 tonight in 220 Main hall. Before going to Music hall, the members will give various Philomathian cheers and songs to stir up enthusiasm for the debate. Next year, Philomathia will oppose the victor in tonight's forensic fray.

NO POWDER PUFFS FOR DENVER CO-EDS

DENVER, Colo. — Powder puffs were barred at the University of Denver as a result of a ruling by Mrs. Schuler, dean of women. Three reasons were set forth as being sufficient warranty for the ruling. Frequent and almost constant standing in front of the big mirror in the newly furnished women's study room in University hall will wear out the new blue and old rose rug. The men students roaming through the corridors can see the girls weilding their puffs and it is not proper. Lastly, according to the dean, it is not dignified.

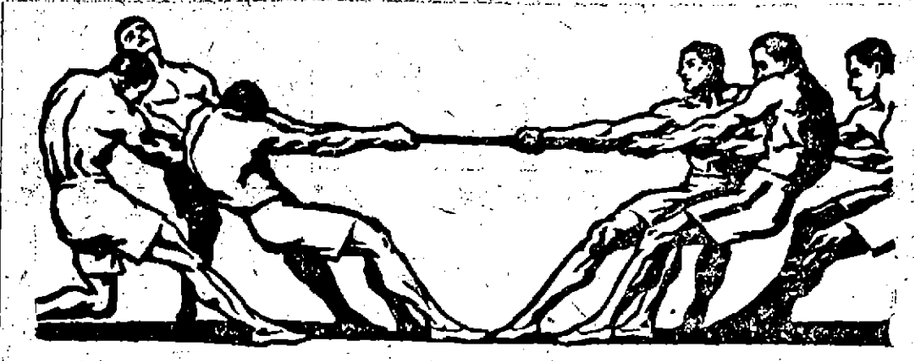
News

There are people everywhere who are drugging themselves with all sorts of medicine, who need nothing but a new viewpoint of life, a new comprehension of the power of happiness that is within themselves and in others, a new knowledge of how to find the bright side even under the darkest trial, of how to effect regeneration through words of cheer and encouragement, of how to generate a spirit of resignation, even of gladness, through the thought that sore as the affliction is, hard as is the deprivation, it could have been worse. What they need is the Pollyanna Treatment as portrayed by Mary Pickford in "Pollyanna"

The Grand



The Tug of Life and Death

Two warring forces—the red blood cells and the white blood cells—are always contending for mastery—in the blood. They are the processes of building up and tearing down. During youth the building-up process of the red blood cells is in the ascendency so that the tendency of the body is all towards growth and development. As middle age approaches the two forces tend to equality while with the coming of old age, the victory of the tearing down process of the white blood cells is manifested by the slow, gradual decay of the vital energies.

REOLO
Makes Rich Red Blood

Oxygen is the life giver—necessary to maintain life. REOLO absorbs the oxygen from the air in the lungs and carries it into the blood—rapidly oxidizing or revitalizing the red blood cells—and increasing the amount of hemoglobin in the blood, sending through the entire body a stream of rich, vitalized, health-giving blood that nourishes every cell, of the nerves, tissues, brain and bones.

By special arrangement with the Dr. A. L. Reusing Laboratories, we have been appointed licensees for the distribution of "REOLO" direct from the laboratories. Each package is certified by Dr. A. L. Reusing, and sold under a positive guarantee of satisfactory results or we will gladly refund your money. Large box of REOLO (containing 100 tablets,) only costs $1.00.

Pollyanna says---

"Most generally there is something about everything that you can be glad about, if you keep hunting long enough to find it."

Do you remember how the world welcomed "Pollyanna"—The Glad Book—and then "Pollyanna"—the Glad Play,

And was ever the weary world in greater need of the tonic of Gladness than now—during this period of reconstruction?

And think! Mary Pickford in "Pollyanna". What a vision of ineffable charm, of exquisite art, the mere words bring.

A story that flows straight from the great common heart of humanity, an answer to the world-old yearning for sunshine and laughter and gladness, enacted by an artiste at whose bidding the eyes of the multitude dim with the mists of life's shadows or sparkle with the very joy of living.

Mary Pickford in "Pollyanna"—a gospel of Gladness a miracle play, if ever there was one.

And this will be offered to the people of Madison by

Scores of Teams From All Over Wisconsin Will Enter The Elk Pin Meet At Kenosha

Madison Lodge to be Represented; Prospects Appear Promising

KENOSHA, Wis.—"Hello, Bill! If you are a Badger Elk and a bowler, the Kenosha lodge of Elks is expecting you to attend the Elks bowling tournament which is to be staged in the new Elks building at Kenosha during the period from Feb. 21 to Mar. 31. It is to be the biggest bowling tournament that Wisconsin Elkdom has ever known and the Kenosha lodge will spare no time or expense to make it the most entertaining and interesting tourney in the history of the lodge bowling meets."

This was the content of an invitation mailed to every lodge of Elks in Wisconsin this week urging them to prepare to send big delegations to the Elk tournament here at that time. Unofficial reports from various lodges of the state have shown that scores of teams from every part of the state are planning to journey to Kenosha for the match. Oshkosh, Wausau, Milwaukee, Madison, Manitowoc and Sheboygan lodges are all to be well represented and have promised to send big invading parties to Kenosha for the match.

Kenosha Gets Ready.

The call issued this week is the second that has been sent. Several days ago posters and entry blanks were mailed to all of the lodges and the notices mailed Thursday were to "whoop up" the interest in the tournament and hurry along the entries.

The Kenoshans have an ideal place for staging the tournament. The splendid alleys installed in their new building last year will be in the best condition when the Elk bowlers begin smashing the maples on Feb. 21. The new clubhouse will give local Elks a splendid opportunity to entertain visiting bowlers in every way. Every preparation is being made to look after the welfare and interest of the visiting Elks and, with their cooperation, the Kenosha committee feels certain that this will be the record tournament.

125 Teams for Kenosha.

That Kenosha Elkdom is heart and soul in the tournament is evidenced by the fact that entries already filed indicate that there will be no less than 125 teams entered from Kenosha in the big state tourney. As they ranked high in the tournament last year they hope to be able to hold their own.

As in previous years, there will be a plentiful supply of prizes to be awarded all through the tournament and a big melon of prize money to be split among the high rollers at the end of the tournament.

HOCKEY TEAMS PLAY SATURDAY

Two intramural hockey games will be played Saturday on the hockey field behind the gym. These games are to count toward the Nelson Trophy. Last Saturday the Agrics won from the Commerce team in an over time game. This Saturday the Agrics will play the L. & S., while the Commerce team will stack up against the Engineers.

The games will start promptly at 2:00 p.m. All college captains are urged to see their men and have them on the ice ready to play. The Agric-L. & S. game will be played first.

Regular practice for the varsity team will start next Monday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. There is much promising material on hand at the present time, but more men are desired. Negotiations are now being closed with St. Johns Military Academy, Delafield, Wis., for a game to be played at Madison on Jan. 24th in connection with the Winter Carnival.

Anyone desiring information regarding the hockey team, should call Manager A. H. Fee at B. 193 627 North Lake street.

George Burns.

He was the hardest man in the National league for pitchers to pitch to last year, drawing eighty-two passes.

Kid Will Throw Stoeff Twice In Half Hour, Claim

Kid Hanson, local wrestling champion, announces his acceptance of Stoeff's challenge on a winner-take-all basis. Furthermore, the rampant Kid declares that, as part of the agreement, he will guarantee to throw the light Stoeff twice within 30 minutes or forfeit the match. Hanson declares he is ready to meet Stoeff at any time, so it now appears to be Stoeff's turn to speak up.

Louis Pergantis, Greek light-heavyweight wrestler of Gary, Ind., will meet Kid Hanson in the next mat show to be staged by Dr. E. L. Bump. Pergantis was booked Thursday night for next Wednesday's show after Charlie Peterson of Chicago, who lost to Hanson Saturday in the greatest match ever put on here, had wired Dr. Bump that Pergantis was a man who could throw the Kid. Soldier Bell of Lockport, Ill., who was being considered for the main bout may appear in a preliminary, although none of the curtain-raisers have as yet been signed.

The Gary matman weighs only 169, only one pound lighter than Hanson, which should guarantee a torrid battle.

SKI CLUB SENDS STARS TO MEET

Seven Badgers Leave for Norge Ski Compet at Cary

For the first time in its history the university will be represented in a competitive ski meet when members of the Badger Ski club will journey to Cary, Ill., this week-end to take part in the meet to be held there under the auspices of the Norge Ski club. The following men will compete: Hans Gude, Sverre Strom, Askel Taranger, Thom Norberg, Hieromymus Holter, Sven Kvaven, Joakim Ihlen.

They will leave to-day in order to arrive in time for some practice on the Cary slide before the meet opens.

Interest in Wisconsin's newest winter sport is growing rapidly. The Badger Ski club has already been asked to join the National Ski association of America, and this is quite a feather in the cap of so young an organization. Several ski clubs in neighboring states and Canada have written asking the club to send representatives to their meets and the local organization bids fair to become very well-known throughout the country.

Local interest has warranted the erection of a smaller jump on the north side of Observatory hill for beginners to practice on. Friday and Sunday afternoons one of the more expert members of the club will be there after 2:30 to instruct those who are learning the sport.

Coach Jones has had constructed a toboggan slide on the north side of Observatory hill, and if the interest in the sport proves sufficient, another will be built so that there may be races.

A number of students will accompany the skiers to Cary today.

Rupp's Basketeers Accept Challenge

Claiming the "Chuck" Rieder has used their names without permission as members of his All-American basketball team, several players on Rupp's five have with blood in their eyes, accepted Rieder's challenge to play for a side bet.

Rieder announced that John Gunderson and "Happy" Smith were members of his team, when in fact, they are with Rupp's Colts, whose membership also comprises Ole Gunderson, Keliher, Kessenich, Diebold and Conlin.

The Colts will take on the All-American at any time and any place. They are also looking for games with other fast clubs whose members are under 21 years of age. Manager Wesley Kessenich may be reached at Badger 5529.

SIGNS SOURCE OF TROUBLE.

EAU CLAIRE—Many local proprietors of soft drink parlors occupying former saloon locations are courting trouble with Uncle Sam by failing to remove, as required by the new federal dry enforcement law, the old familiar signs blazoning forth in large letters and with a stimulating array of kegs or bottles, the virtues of this beer or that whiskey.

TOM J. HICKEY AGAIN TO HEAD BALL LEAGUE

Reelected President of American Association Thursday Night at Chicago

CHICAGO — After re-electing Thomas J. Hickey president for a three-year term at an increased salary and adopting an 18 player limit, club owners of the American association Thursday night adjourned their meeting until Friday, when the question of a schedule for the 1920 season will be taken up.

Indications were that the club owners would adopt a schedule of 154 games, starting the season on April 14, the date of the major league opening, and closing about Sept. 27 or 28. Some of the club owners, including Joseph B. Tinker of Columbus, favor a 168 game schedule, but it was reported the majority favor the shorter season. Pres. Hickey will urge the adoption of the 154 game schedule.

The league voted to discontinue the practice of raising a players' fund next season by setting aside a cent from each admission. This plan raised $10,000 last season, and the amount was divided among the teams in the order finished. But the club owners decided that instead of stimulating the players' interest in the club it has no apparent effect.

Other issues settled by the club owners included the appointment of Otto Borchert of Milwaukee, W. F. Kneblekamp of Louisville, and C. H. F. Heinfeld of Columbus, as a committee in charge of the new reserve fund, which is to consist of the funds left after the league operating expenses are deducted from the 10 per cent charge on all admissions.

August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball commission, addressing the meeting in the role of a peace delegate, and asked the association to have representation at the joint meeting of the major and minor league committees here on Feb. 11. Chairman Herrmann said he believed a solution would be found for the resumption of relations between the majors and minor leagues.

Badgers Leave For Chicago For Second Conference Game With Maroons on Saturday

Cardinal Hopes Set Back by Failure of Barlow

Practice for the Wisconsin basketball squad ended Thursday night in preparation for the second conference game of the season, the battle with the Maroons at Chicago Saturday night. The team will leave for Chicago Friday evening, getting into the Windy City in plenty of time to get a full night's rest.

Another setback to Cardinal hopes was dealt Thursday when official faculty announcement was made that Barlow, varsity guard, had failed in examinations given him early this week, passing marks in which would have made him eligible for the game Saturday. This blow, following Pease's injury, necessitates the use of Frogner. Anything that would prevent his playing, too, would leave the Badgers in pretty bad shape in the guarding lines.

Wisconsin will line up against Chicago the same as it has in the last two contests. Capt. Knapp and Zulfer will perform at forward positions, with Fanning at center and Weston and Frogner doing the guarding.

The Maroons defeated Iowa, 37 to 18, piling up two more points against this team than did Wisconsin. Hinkle, guard, and Birhoff and Vollmer, forwards, however, are strong men who may turn the tables on Wisconsin while playing on their own floor. Iowa will play here next Monday night.

Three athletic contests have been scheduled for Saturday at the gymnasium. There will be two interclass meets: swimming and wrestling, open to all who are not "W" men, and a novice track meet will be held at 2:30. Both "W" and numeral men are eliminated in this meet.

American Legion Holds Dempsey's Plea Unimportant

INDIANAPOLIS — Franklin D'Olier, national commander of the American Legion, said he had no comment to make regarding the proposition to allow Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, to appear before the national body of the legion here and explain his war record. The offer was made by Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager.

"The American Legion at this time," said Commander D'Olier, "has more important things to attend to."

60 BOYS TRYING FOR CHANCE IN STOCK CONTEST

Are as Earnest and Active in Interest as Are Their Elders

With all the earnestness and active interest shown by their "professional dads" at a state or national exposition, several hundred boys in the agricultural classes in the high schools of the state are centering their attention on the fifth annual state high school livestock judging contest, to be held at the stock pavilion at Madison Friday and Saturday, Feb. 6 and 7.

At the state "round-up" five classes of livestock, dairy cattle, beef cattle, horses, swine, and sheep will be judged by the team and prominent stockmen will choose the winning teams. The silver cup must be won three times or twice in succession before it passes into the hands of a district or high school team. A banner will be second prize.

From three to five high schools are included in each district. A hard fought battle of elimination to weed out some 60 contestants is predicted by T. L. Bewick, state leader of the Boys' and Girls' clubs, and J. A. James, of the state committee. Members of the state committee who are handling the work include J. A. ESPIONAGE LAW IN PEACE

SENATOR NORRIS of Nebraska declares that the Sterling espionage and sedition bill before the senate would indict the president. Surprising as this may seem Norris is entirely logical. During his campaign, while national prohibition was in force, the present governor of New Jersey said:

"If I am elected I will make New Jersey as wet as the Atlantic ocean."

Wilson not only aided his campaign but congratulated him after election.

But let no one suppose for this reason that the Sterling bill is a foolish one. This illustration admirably shows its merit for the purpose for which it was drawn. Every one who thinks realizes that an espionage bill is needed, not to hit revolutionary reds but to choke off orderly reform by the ballot. We already have adequate laws for plotters of armed revolution.

What is more logical, then, than that the new espionage law should be so framed that nearly everybody could be dragged in under it? The reactionaries in power will see to it that the law is not enforced against their men and that it is enforced against any or all of their enemies. The old espionage law was violated repeatedly by prominent politicians, it was enforced only against liberals and radicals, and it never caught a single spy, which was its avowed purpose.

IS AT LEAST FRANK

ONCE a liberal, now a reactionary magazine, the Metropolitan of New York City at least still has the virtue of frankness. In a recent issue it has an editorial defining Americanism as loyalty to the big business system. Thus, if one believes in public ownership of utilities such as railroads, he can not be a good American. If he is not proud of the sugar profiteering, of the aircraft scandal, of the Hog Island frauds; if he is not proud of the great grabs of Rockefeller, Morgan, Ryan, Hill and others he is not a loyal American.

"You can not be against the capitalist system," says the Metropolitan, "and still be for America; you can not apologize for that system or be ashamed of it and still be a good American. You can not, indeed, be a good American, in the sense of being loyal to American traditions, unless you are proud of the capitalist system."

If the politicians had only given us this frank explanation in the fall of 1918 there would be fewer "loyal Americans" in congress and in state governments and a good many more fitted to make laws for the common people.

TRUTH IN THE PRESS

"GIVE the devil his due" is a bit of sportsmanship never practiced by the controlled press against those which it marks out as devils. On December 28, 1919, for instance, the New York Tribune's Sunday supplement carried a picture of a dock fire under which were these words:

"A remarkable smoke picture showing thousands of barrels of perfectly good American oil and tar going up at Archangel from fires set by Bolsheviki spies, hundreds of which infest northern Russia."

Tribune readers must have thought that pictures do not lie, but they may not have realized that liars can use pictures. This same picture was used in a Russian paper, the World View of St. Petersburg, on August 14, 1909, over 10 years previous, and the translation of the words under the Russian picture reads:

"Big fire in Archangel, starting from unknown cause, consumes 30,000 barrels of sea lion fat."

NEWBERRY IS BACK

NOW that his own and his friends' indictment on criminal charges in connection with his claimed use of money to secure his election has become a familiar story, Truman H. Newberry of Michigan has returned here and is going about the senate as cheerful as you please. He has even been selected as a member of a special committee of the senate. He has proved his sense of humor by presenting to the senate a petition from the Northeastern Michigan Association of Credit Men praying for the enactment of a law establishing a budget system!

Dinner Stories

"I must have 1,000,000 rubles right away," said the Bolshevist minister of war.

"You'll have to wait a while," said the Bolshevist minister of finance.

"What's the matter?"

"Our press has broken down."

Edward M. Flesh of the United States Food Commission was talking in St. Louis about snobbishness.

"Snobbishness penetrates everywhere," he said. "It even penetrates our churches."

"I know an old darkey who got religion last month and decided to join the church. He selected, of course, the richest and handsomest church in town, the church with the finest music and the best preaching. Then he called on the pastor and stated his design.

"But the pastor hemmed and hawed. He felt his fashionable flock wouldn't welcome such an addition as the old darkey. He didn't want to hurt the old fellow's feelings, however, and finally he said:

"'Go home, Uncle Rooster. Go home and pray over it. This is an important matter and it should be made a subject of prayer.'

"Old Uncle Rooster went home, and in a few days he was back again.

"'Ah prayer an' Ah prayed,' said Uncle Rooster; 'an de good Lawd He say to me: "Rooster, mah son, Ah wouldn't bothah mah haid about dat mattah no mo.' Ah've been a-tryin' to git dat church mahself fo' de last twenty-nine yeahs an' Ah aint had no luck, nuther."

American Chorus Is Superior Says John Cort "Listen Lester" Here

Producer of Play Discusses the Tendency to Take Shows From the U. S. to London; Tom Wise Will Soon be Seen at Fuller

Since so many producers have lately undertaken to take their productions to London, John Cort, whose musical comedy "Listen Lester" at the Fuller, tonight and tomorrow matinee and night has been one of the successes of the season, has been studying the hows and whys and wherefors of production here and abroad with an eye to the future. He declares that in his opinion the American chorus is superior to that bred in old England.

"Because," he explains, "I like the American method of picking a chorus in preference to the way it is done over there. There is a sharp difference in the method of building up a chorus and I prefer the American style.

"For instance, in England when a producer finds he needs a certain number of girls for his play, he looks over his list of dancing schools and sends to the school to send him the required number. If he wants classical dancers, he sends to the school that specializes on classical dancing and the girls are sent to him. He knows they can dance and very little time is necessary to rehearse them. No matter what kind of dancing he wants, there's a school for which he can engage trained girls."

But still Mr. Cort prefers the American methods of picking out the most attractive girls from the myriads who apply to him for a place in the chorus and training them under a director for the particular musical comedy he is rehearsing. Almost every young girl has had training in general dancing, and the American method gives a producer an opportunity to choose the best looking, the most attractive girls that offer their services. In England, the first consideration is given to their skill in dancing; over here, a girl's ability to dance is taken for granted and only the most alluring chorus girls are accepted.

Again another bit of advantage the American producer has, explains Mr. Cort, is the variety of types he has to select from. In England he has only the English type, the slender blonde. Here we have the vivacious brunette, the Italian type, the blonde, the Scandinavian type, the most seductive of all, the American type, a combination begotten on American soil only.

Therefore, declares John Court, an all-American chorus will go over the top to success with a vigor equal to their brothers on the battlefield, and it is his choice for the best chorus of all.

AT THE ORPHEUM

The last half of the week brings a good bill to the Orpheum. There is a combination of acrobatic juggling, muscular feats, comedy, and song that will please the most exacting. While every act is good, J. C. Lewis Jr. and Co., with a little song and comedy act get the head line honors. In this act there are two juveniles that are far above the ordinary for versatility. Both are capable comedians and singers.

For once a large part of the audience was disillusioned by a female impersonator, Martelle. The voice, the face, the form, and the gowns—there were lots of male hearts shattered when the stunning soprano pulled off her henna wig.

The Hennings appear first. They do some clever acrobatic juggling and hat throwing. Skipper, Kennedy and Reeves in "College Campus Capers" sing some close harmony that the audience likes and pull a line of chatter and steps that bring them lots of applause. Last but not least is Louis Hart in "As in a Dream". His act is rather fantastically set but gives him the opportunity to display artistically his almost superhuman development.

AT THE NEW STRAND

Elsie Ferguson, during her extensive stage and screen career, has been called upon to do a variety of unusual things. But in "Counterfeit," her picture being shown at the New Strand today and tomorrow for the last times, she tries her hand at safe-cracking. It is quite in line with her past performances that she does a very clever and neat job. The only untoward development that mars it is the fact that the man she loves has been watching her without her knowledge and is at a loss to know her motive. This is one of the dramatic moments in "Counterfeit," a film which presents Miss Ferguson in one of the most fitting and interesting characterizations of her career.

"JOLLY TOM"

Jolly Tom Wise will be seen at the Fuller, Saturday, Jan. 24, matinee and night as the star of "Cappy Ricks." It is an Oliver Morosco production and the supporting cast embraces the names of Isabel Withers, Earle Foxe, Percival Moore, Norval Keedwell, Helen Stewart, Jaqueline Mason, Helen Lowell, Thomas Shearer, Eugene Lowe, Phillip Lord, Arthur Halloway and other notable players.

GRAND.

When the United Artists Corporation was formed, the aim of the four stars—Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks and D. W. Griffith—was to establish a medium through which to convey bigger and finer photoplays to the motion picture public. Under this plan three pictures have already been released—two by Douglas Fairbanks and one by D. W. Griffith. Now comes Mary Pickford with "Pollyanna," her first "Big Four" offering, and the fourth film to be handled by the United Artists since the organization's birth, which will be shown at the Grand theater next week.

Voice of the People

THE TREATY VOTE

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

Did it occur to you why so many students failed to vote on the treaty? Because at about the same time the vote was to be taken there appeared headlines in the papers about "Hunting Reds in the Colleges" etc. Then each student was compelled to sign his name to his ballot. Semester exams now due. See. Some voted against belief.

"One who is afraid to sign his name."

FROM A FARMER.

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

Enclosed please find check for $4.00 for your paper. Like others have said before, I can say that I would not be without it. Your paper gives me what I am looking for. I want to know how this industrial game between the farmers and laborers on one side and the capitalists on the other is progressing. I want to know how the game is played against us. The Capital Times is giving me this information. What is especially commendable about The Capital Times is that it urges fair play and points out the dangers of not doing justice toward the other side. In spite of your good work and a great many others all over the country it looks as though the outlook is not bright. Rules are flagrantly being violated and there is rough play. Talk of changes in our government is now frequently heard even up here among farmers. We are not alarmed at radical changes proposed by labor or the socialist party. Things are sometimes radically wrong. We have come to like the socialists better because we feel they are fighting our battles. What is the difference between an I. W. W. organization who won't work except for certain wages and a manufacturer who won't manufacture except for certain profits? We farmers don't belong to either one of these groups; we keep right on farming even if profits are very small at times. We are hoping for better times when the real enemies to honest industry and justice will be dealt with without respect for person or wealth or political influence.

DEALING WITH THE REDS

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

A reader and observer of current newspapers dispatches need not have any superabundance of intelligence or tolerance to decry the tragically rediculous (if anything could be both tragic and ridiculous) policies being pursued by the federal government. When intolerant abusive acts were perpetrated by the government and individuals during the war, the heated, bigoted, frame of public mind in some degree excused the wrong. But now, since we no longer have any militaristic autocracy endeavoring to pull down our pillars of state, the condition is inexcusable and most deplorable.

I have in mind the recent unlawful, unconstitutional actions of our government in dealing with the much exagerated red peril. Organized raids by public officials have resulted in the confiscation of "tons of red literature". As if the confiscation of the mere pamphlets will kill the spirit which inspired them, or even check the doctrines which the said pamphlets expounded. The so-called "reds" will have become bitter against the government which thus wronged them. They will become all the more ardent exponents of their doctrines and in the same degree opposed to the persecuting government. Denied the agency of writing, they still have a most effective weapon in speech. Historical precedents have shown that this mode of suppression instead of checking, spreads the persecuted doctrine the more.

Now that a "red conspiracy has been nipped in the bud" by the arrest of some hundreds of reds, I conclude that we may again slumber in sweet security. What a horrible danger our government has just successfully weathered. Several hundred reds in our midst with blood in their eyes, and we are hardly aware of their sinister presence. Can any sane man believe that these few hundred, oft times misguided, people jeopardized our institutions, our very government. If our institutions can not stand up against the criticisms and efforts of these few hundred men, then they are not worth the trouble of defending them. I do think that our institutions are built on a solid basis, that they are worth defending, and that they would continue to exist with the severest kind of criticism. Heretofore our great statesmen have strenuously advocated criticisms of our government and our policies. Of course as soon as these criticisms change into physical violence, then we have recourse to our courts for self protection. But as long as the criticisms are peaceful, they are really beneficial.

The argument is often advanced "if this person does not like our country or our form of government, let him get out." So also I could say "you who complain of the evils and wrongs in this world, get off of it." Perhaps the atmosphere on Mars would suit you better." Had the policy of leaving a land or locality when certain conditions did not suit, been followed under what form of government would we be living today? The colonists were not satisfied with the government. Instead of moving out of the commonwealth they jeopardized their lives to better conditions. We owe all our great institutions to that same criticism which we are persecuting today.

Instead of hounding critics and malcontents, let us tolerate them as we have in the past. If their principles are wrong they will die a natural death. So far in our history, we have not lost any of our liberties by allowing freedom of speech and of the press. For every red imprisoned there are hundreds made. Instead of solving the question superficially by deporting the radicals, let us go deeper into the cause of the present unrest. Our present government is capable of solving the problem without the use of unlawful, intolerant means.

REGARDING LABOR

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

Enclosed please find $1.00 for credit and upon the expiration of this credit desire you to discontinue sending me your paper.

The sole reason for my discontinuing your paper is your attitude towards labor unions. If the American Union is not good enough for labor, any kind, I think such labor should voluntarily (I would not say deport) migrate in search of the Will O' the Wisp, a country where everything is "just perfect". How any paper can defend "labor unions", which I understand are not incorporated, making them responsible for wrongs, if committed, before our courts, is beyond my understanding. That is, if honest, which I believe you to be.

According to Louie J. Hill it is as difficult to run an engine as a Ford car, so he was quoted in a paper in 1916. A friend of mine informed me that on account of "union" rules his nephew would have to occupy a position as fireman on locomotive for seven (7) years before becoming engineer. Is there anything more arbitrary and unfair to progress?

LOOKS AFTER CHILDREN.

LA CROSSE—La Crosse county, which has always ranked high in the matter of the health of its babies, is taking additional precautions to safeguard the lives of the little ones. Children's health centers are to be located at Onalaska and Campbell. They are the result of the co-operative efforts of the city health department and the child welfare bureau of the state. Its director, Mrs. H. H. Morrar of Madison, was also instrumental in the work here.
